

Evening Prayer for 12 December 2020 - Welcome

Welcome to Evening Prayer from St Mary's Cathedral in Glasgow which will be shared in cyberspace in a Zoom meeting room.

One of the things which causes some difficulty is the slight time lag between the different people speaking. This makes reciting something together a bit of a challenge and the delays would make singing something together impossible.

The service this evening will be led by 2 people – the leader and responder. These two people will keep their microphones on throughout. Everyone else will be muted for the first part of the service. Your microphone will be unmuted so that we can say the Magnificat and the Lord's Prayer together and so that you can contribute an intercession if you want to do so. Please join in aloud with all the prayers in bold, saying them with the responder.

The service will begin at 1700 BST.. The room will be open from 1645. People will go into a waiting room first and be admitted into the main room. (This is to cope with the problem of non-participants disrupting publicly advertised zoom meetings). Please try to arrive before 5 pm.

1 I have said to the Lord, 'You are my God;*
listen, O Lord, to my supplication.'

hear my voice when I cry to you.

3 I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the poor* and render justice to the needy.

1 Sing to the Lord a new song,*
for he has done marvellous things.

has he won for himself the victory.

his righteousness has he openly shown in the sight of the nations.

- 4 He remembers his mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel,* and all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.
- 5 Shout with joy to the Lord, all you lands;* lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.
- 6 Sing to the Lord with the harp,* with the harp and the voice of song.
- 7 With trumpets and the sound of the horn* shout with joy before the King, the Lord.
- 8 Let the sea make a noise and all that is in it,* the lands and those who dwell therein.
- 9 Let the rivers clap their hands,* and let the hills ring out with joy before the Lord, when he comes to judge the earth.
- 10 In righteousness shall he judge the world* and the peoples with equity.

Glory to God, Source of all Being, Eternal Word and Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever. Amen.

- 2 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last,* the beginning and the end.
- 3 'I am the root and offspring of David,* the bright morning star.'
- 4 The Spirit and the Bride say, 'Come';* let anyone who hears, say, 'Come',
- 5 Let anyone who is thirsty come;* let anyone who desires take the water of life without price.

Readings

2 Thessalonians 3.6-18

Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right. Take note of those who do not obey what we say in this letter; have nothing to do with them, so that they may be ashamed. Do not regard them as enemies, but warn them as believers.

Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with all of you. I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. This is the mark in every letter of mine; it is the way I write. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

Luke 22.31-38

Jesus said: "Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your own faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." And he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death!" Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, until you have denied three times that you know me." He said to them, "When I sent you out without a purse, bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?" They said, "No, not a thing." He said to them, "But now, the one who has a purse must take it, and likewise a bag. And the one who has no sword must sell his cloak and buy one. For I tell you, this scripture must be fulfilled in me, 'And he was counted among the lawless'; and indeed what is written about me is being fulfilled." They said, "Lord, look, here are two swords." He replied, "It is enough."

Magnificat

Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.
All flesh shall see the salvation of God.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord
my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, for you, Lord, have looked with favour on your lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
You, the Almighty, have done great things for me
and holy is your name.
You have mercy on those who fear you
from generation to generation.
You have shown strength with your arm
and scattered the proud in their conceit, casting down the mighty from their thrones
and lifting up the lowly.
You have filled the hungry with good things
and sent the rich away empty.
You have come to the aid of your servant Israel,
to remember the promise of mercy,
the promise made to our forebears,
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to God, Source of all Being, Eternal Word and Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever. Amen.

Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.
All flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

but deliver us from evil.

and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.
