

Evening Prayer for 27 November 2021 – Welcome

Welcome to Evening Prayer from St Mary's Cathedral in Glasgow which will be shared in cyberspace in a Zoom meeting room.

The cathedral experimented with this for a few years starting in December 2011 and these services have been revived during the time that church buildings are shut due to the Corona Virus.

One of the things which causes some difficulty is the slight time lag between the different people speaking. This makes reciting something together a bit of a challenge and the delays would make singing something together impossible.

The service this evening will be led by 2 people – the leader and responder. These two people will keep their microphones on throughout. Everyone else will be muted for the first part of the service. Your microphone will be unmuted so that we can say the Magnificat and the Lord's Prayer together and so that you can contribute an intercession if you want to do so. Please join in aloud with all the prayers in bold, saying them with the responder.

The number of people attending will be recorded in the service book at St Mary's.

The service will begin at 1700 BST. People will go into a waiting room first and be admitted into the main room. (This is to cope with the problem of non-participants disrupting publicly advertised zoom meetings). Please try to arrive before 5 pm.

Your microphone will be muted unless you are one of the 2 leaders.

Week C – Saturday

O God, make speed to save us:

O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever. Amen.

Psalmody

Search me out, O God, and know my heart
try me and know my restless thoughts

Opening - from Psalm 139

- 1 You trace my journeys and my resting-places*
and are acquainted with all my ways.
 - 2 Indeed there is not a word on my lips,*
but you, O Lord, know it altogether.
 - 3 If I say, 'Surely the darkness will cover me,*
and the light around me turn to night',
 - 4 Darkness is not dark to you; the night is as bright as the day;*
darkness and light to you are both alike.
- Glory to God, Source of all Being, Eternal Word and Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever. Amen.

Psalm 19

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God,*
and the firmament shows his handiwork.
- 2 One day tells its tale to another,*
and one night imparts knowledge to another.
- 3 Although they have no words or language,*
and their voices are not heard,

- 4 Their sound has gone out into all lands,*
and their message to the ends of the world.
- 5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun;*
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
- 6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again;
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.
- 7 The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul;*
the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.
- 8 The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever;*
the judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold,*
sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.
- 11 By them also is your servant enlightened,*
and in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can tell how often he offends?
cleanse me from my secret faults.
- 13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get dominion over me;*
then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offence.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,*
O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.
- Glory to God, Source of all Being, Eternal Word and Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever. Amen.

Conclusion – a song of Pilgrimage (From Sirach 51)

- 1 While I was still young, before I began my travels,*
I sought for wisdom openly in my prayers.
- 2 I asked for her outside the temple sanctuary,*
and I will seek her to the end.
- 3 She has been the delight of my heart.*
from first blossom to early fruit.
- 4 I have kept firmly to the true path;*
I have followed her steps since my youth.
- 5 I bowed my ear a little and received her;*
I found wisdom and was well instructed.
- 6 Glory to the One who gives me wisdom!
I will live according to her way.
- 7 From the beginning I gained understanding from her;*
therefore I will never be deserted.
- 8 Because I longed to find her with all my heart,*
I have gained a good possession.
- 9 As my reward the Lord has given me a tongue*
with which I shall sing his praises.

Glory to God, Source of all Being, Eternal Word and Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever. Amen.

Search me out, O God, and know my heart
try me and know my restless thoughts

Readings

1 Peter 4.7-19

The end of all things is near; therefore be serious and discipline yourselves for the sake of your prayers. Above all, maintain constant love for one another, for love covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without complaining. Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received. Whoever speaks must do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves must do so with the strength that God supplies, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ. To him belong the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice in so far as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed. If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, a criminal, or even as a mischief-maker. Yet if any of you suffers as a Christian, do not consider it a disgrace, but glorify God because you bear this name. For the time has come for judgement to begin with the household of God; if it begins with us, what will be the end for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And

'If it is hard for the righteous to be saved,
what will become of the ungodly and the sinners?'

Therefore, let those suffering in accordance with God's will entrust themselves to a faithful Creator, while continuing to do good.

Matthew 20.29-34

As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him. There were two blind men sitting by the roadside. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, 'Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!' The crowd sternly ordered them to be quiet; but they shouted even more loudly, 'Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!' Jesus stood still and called them, saying, 'What do you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Lord, let our eyes be opened.' Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they regained their sight and followed him.

Response – Sirach 51.26

Buy wisdom without money, take her yoke upon you.

Buy wisdom without money, take her yoke upon you.

Let your souls receive instruction.

Take her yoke upon you.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Buy wisdom without money, take her yoke upon you.

Magnificat

God has come to the aid of his servant Israel,
as he promised to Abraham and his children.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord
my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, for you, Lord, have looked with favour on your lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
You, the Almighty, have done great things for me
and holy is your name.

You have mercy on those who fear you from generation to generation.

You have shown strength with your arm and scattered the proud in their conceit, casting down the mighty from their thrones and lifting up the lowly.

You have filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty.

You have come to the aid of your servant Israel,
to remember the promise of mercy,
the promise made to our forebears,
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to God, Source of all Being, Eternal Word and Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever. Amen.

God has come to the aid of his servant Israel,
as he promised to Abraham and his children.

Prayers

Anyone can offer a prayer at this point in the service.

Prayers may end with the bidding: Lord in your mercy – Hear our Prayer.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Do not bring us to the time of trial,
but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Your microphone will be muted at this point.

Gracious creator of heaven and earth, your Word has come among us as the true Sun of righteousness, and the good news of his birth has gone out to the ends of the world. Open our eyes to the light of your law, that we may be purified from sin and serve you without reproach for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Light and our Life. Amen.

Lord God almighty, come and dispel the darkness from our hearts, that in the radiance of your brightness we may know you, the only unfading light, glorious in all eternity. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord:

Thanks be to God!

The God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing:
through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
